

North Atlantic Internet offers Channel Programs that are specifically designed to enhance your current product offering and enable you to expand your business. As a North Atlantic Channel Partner you can bring a diverse and powerful suite of products and services to your customers. If you are an organization looking to diversify your existing portfolio, we offer a range of products and services designed to meet your specific business objectives. Our key programs are outlined below:

Partner Program

Our Partner Program is designed to compliment the business critical services of vendors who offer more complete managed solutions. If your business is geared to voice, hosting, network design or any other business critical service our suite of IP services is designed to leverage the convergence trend in the industry and offer extensive revenue generating opportunities.

Affiliate Program

North Atlantic Internet's Affiliate Program is geared to the success of today's business visionary. Our enterprise class products and services, coupled with our extensive Super-Regional Tier 1 network, can help your customers reach their target audience and become successful, virtually overnight. As a North Atlantic Internet Affiliate, you will be able to provide one stop complete solutions for your customers. The end result is a comprehensive product offering, a higher level of profitability and increased customer satisfaction for your business vertical.

Wholesale

North Atlantic Internet provides a complete suite of wholesale product offerings for companies that wish to resell our products and services. Now you can grow your business beyond your current offerings. North Atlantic Internet's wholesale program enables your business to deliver more products to more customers, with efficiency and reliability.

B2B

North Atlantic Internet is very pleased to extend our B2B resource network to all of our Channel participants and Customers. You can readily locate proven managed services that are designed to increase the efficiencies and ROI of your small to medium size enterprise. Our referral business channel is comprised of enterprises that have demonstrated a high level of business acumen and conduct from within their respective industries. We choose to focus on our core services, and keep ourselves surrounded with experts in their respective channels.
